One-Legged Man Stages Robbery Of Store

He and Second Bandit Obtain $50 Saturday At Gamm's Shoe Store

Two bandits, one with a wooden leg, obtained about $50 in an armed robbery at 8:05 p.m. Saturday at Gamm's shoe store, 2122 Nameoki road, in the Belle-meek shopping center.

The pair had been shopping for shoes there earlier in the evening, when there were other customers.

While leaving they said they would return, and did so at a time when the store was occupied only by the clerks, Steven and Dennis Crabtree, both of 2217 Miracle avenue.

The customer with a false right leg displayed a small black pearl-handled revolver. After the cash register was looted of currency, the robbers ordered the clerks to walk out the front door of the store.

Flee In Auto
When the Crabtrees returned to the store, the pair had left by way of the back door. An auto sped past the rear door a moment later. All police were alerted, but the vehicle was not located.

The peg-leg bandit had blond crew-cut hair and was described as about 30 years old. He was five feet, ten inches tall and weighed approximately 150 pounds.

He was wearing a light jacket, grey sportshirt and dark trousers.

The other robber was wearing a dark sport coat, grey slipover sweater, trousers, white shirt, black tie and black patent leather shoes.

About five feet, 11 inches and 145 pounds, he had black hair combed straight back and was in need of a shave.

One Bandit Nervous
No threats were used, but the second bandit was highly nervous and at one point whispered to Dennis Crabtree, "Watch it. He has a gun."

The weapon, shown later, was about .22-caliber, Crabtree said. The robbers indicated surprise at what they regarded as being a small amount of money in the store, and were told that a bank deposit had been made.

Man Burned in Moving Burning Couch Outdoors

Fire originating in a couch caused $300 damage and burned John Stearns, 2908a East 23rd street, at that address shortly before 9 a.m. Sunday.

Taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Stearns was treated for burns to the hands and feet.

Stearns, 26, also had burns on the abdomen and left leg, and had chest pains from smoke inhalation. He was released Sunday evening.

Attributed to a cigarette, the blaze was discovered by Stearns in his apartment upstairs over a store. He tried to push the couch out of the living room and onto a porch but it wedged in a doorway, threatening the entire building.

A man believed to reside in the 2900 block of Lincoln avenue noticed Stearns' plight and ran to the building, climbing a roof to aid him. The man kicked the couch free and it fell down an outdoor stairway.

Firemen estimated the loss at $100 to the building and $200 to the contents. There was slight smoke damage. The structure is owned by John Scott.

3 Homes, Tavern Burglarized Here In Past Weekend

Three house burglaries and a break-in at a tavern in which a watchdog was killed and $200 was reported to Quad-City and Madison county authorities during the weekend.

A large quantity of furniture, appliances and wearing apparel was taken in a burglary Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Ang Norton, 1623 Fifth street, Madison.

Two bedrooms, the kitchen and family room were ransacked by the intruder, who gained entrance by breaking two windows on the west side of the home. The front door also was damaged.

Loot included a $60 white fur coat, two cameras, a set of sterling silver, dress knives, two large table lamps, another lamp, skirts, blouses, dresses, a blue winter coat, five pairs of slacks, three pairs of trousers with three hand-carved ivory elephants, a music box full of costume jewelry, a set of jade earrings, two electric clocks, a table lighter, an electric can opener, a radio, bread, beer, eggs, bacon, pork steaks, an electric razor, a toaster, a china display piece, a coffee pot.

The weapon, shown later, was about .22-caliber, Crabtree said. The robbers indicated surprise at what they regarded as being a small amount of money in the store, and were told that a bank deposit had been made.

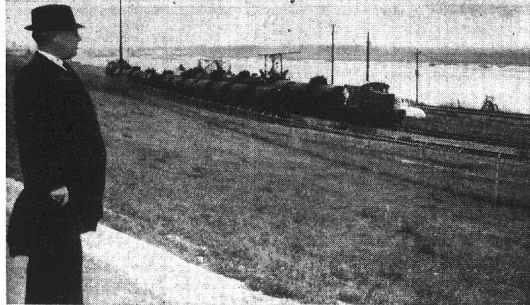

Citizen Group Seeks Faster Action on Maryville Crossing

An effort to speed up the Illinois Commerce Commission order for the next June deadline for installation of safety devices at the death-dealing Maryville road crossing will be made by the Citizens for Action Committee.

The steering group of the committee is to meet at 2 p.m. on Jan. 14 at the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce office.

Rev. John N. DiGirolamo of the Mitchell Presbyterian Church, member of the steering group, said letters calling for faster action were sent to state legislators immediately after the Dec. 3 train-truck accident at the crossing in which a father and son were injured.

He noted there has been minor improvement to the roadway at the crossing. Following a last spring's demands by the citizen group, but that the ICC has given

Bartylak Ordered To Appear In Court

Severe Criticism of State's Attorney by Judge; $5500 is Paid

An order directing Madison County State's Attorney Joseph Bartylak to appear before Associate Circuit Judge I. H. Streper when he is released from Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, was issued by the judge Friday.

Judge Streper issued a writ of attachment requiring the county sheriff to bring Bartylak into court.

The action was taken during a hearing in which Bartylak was held in contempt of court.

Bartylak did not appear, but Streper did not find the state's attorney to be in contempt of court.

Large Shipment of Soybean Oil Going Through Harbor

One of the largest shipments started immediately Friday by the staff of National Marine Service, Inc., at the harbor. The re-Port District—2,041,000 pounds of soybean oil—began arriving by 20 rail cars, is expected to arrive today.

When the barge is completely loaded, later this week, it will be added to a tow to go through the Chain of Rocks Canal locks and down the river to New Orleans.

The soybean oil is arriving here from Des Moines, Iowa, where it was extracted from soybeans by a chemical process by Cargill, Inc.

Other trainloads of the oil are to be processed through docking facilities at Alton.

The pumping operation here is to be continuous until the rail tank cars are emptied. The amount of time required depends on the temperature. Kenneth Hall, terminal manager for National Marine Service, said steam will be used to heat the oil if the thermometer dips too low.

Harold R. Fischer, chairman of the Tri-City Regional Port District board of commissioners, visited the Granite City Harbor Friday afternoon to view the operation.

Gateway Council To Act this Week On Clean Air Law

A recommended air pollution control ordinance for the Illinois-Missouri metropolitan area is scheduled to be acted upon by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council in a meeting Wednesday.

The meeting is set for 2 p.m. in the offices of St. Louis Mayor A. J. C. Cervantes.

The council is expected to approve a proposed ordinance based upon the Interstate Air Pollution Study and a series of "minor changes" suggested in a report presented to the 17-member council in a discussion session Nov. 29.

Two Cars Hit at Curve Near Animal Shelter; 2 Killed There Nov. 17

Three persons were killed last night in a head-on auto collision near the north limits of Granite City—at the same curve of Illinois Route 3 that has claimed four other lives in the past four months.

Three others, two of them children, were injured critically.

The dead: Mark G. Mayhew, 32, of 2416 Missouri avenue, driver of one car.

Mrs. Priscilla Mayhew, 25, of 2416 Missouri avenue, wife of Mark Mayhew.

Lonz L. Harvey, 53, of 2134 Nevada avenue, driver of the other auto.

Injured were: Mrs. Elma Harvey, 45, of 2134 Nevada avenue, wife of Lonz Harvey, severe head and face injuries.

Karen Sue Perigo, 9, of 5 Kaseberg Park, a great-niece of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey, face cuts. She is a fourth grader at Stallings school.

Kathy Hutchinson, 11, of 4909 Kirkpatrick drive, also a great-niece of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey, head injuries and severe lacerations. She is a fifth grader at Marshall school.

Mrs. Harvey Critical Mrs. Harvey was reported in critical condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital shortly before noon today. The Hutchinson girl was said to be in serious condition. Karen Sue was reported fair.

So far this year, 39 persons have died in accidents compared to 23 in all of last year. Last night's head-on collision occurred at 7:00 p.m. according to Granite City police, as the Mayhew car, headed south, crossed the center line, apparently in an attempt to pass another car. The car driven by Harvey was headed north.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew and Harvey were pronounced dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital. The crash occurred on the wide, swinging curve at the Granite City animal shelter in virtually the same spot that claimed two lives in a traffic accident last Aug. 21 and two others in a head-on collision on Nov. 17. Last night's crash increased to seven the total fatalities in that location.

Police Give Possible Reason Granite City police officials pointed out that in all three accidents southbound cars apparently were passing other vehicles on the curve, which is a passing zone. They pointed out the high-

The scene of last night's triple-dead crash has also been the location of two other multiple death accidents in the past four months. The roadway is State Route 3 which has a curve at the city animal shelter building.

Police describe it as an open curve with a clear view and slight banking. A patrol car has tested it at slightly over 60 mph.

On Nov. 17 at 4:30 a.m. two motorists alone in their cars died in a head-on crash—Larry J. Bopp, 21, of Alton and Stanley J. Moncheski, 50, of Fergus, Mo., and a passenger, Wesley R. Jones, also of Alton, were killed in a head-on crash. The other motorist, an East St. Louisian, was hurt.

On Aug. 21 at 1:20 a.m. Ozzie Terry, 56, of Alton, and a passenger, Wesley R. Jones, also of Alton, were killed in a head-on crash. The other motorist, an East St. Louisian, was hurt.

May Resign

Some courteous officials feel the current action may lead to Bartylak's resignation. Associates of the state's attorney have said that he may resign because of illness after consultation with his doctors. Bartylak has been criticized previously over the handling of county finances in his office.

Former State's Attorney Dick Mudge appeared in behalf of Bartylak, who has been hospitalized since Oct. 1 in the Renard district at Barnes.

Mudge entered into the court records a letter from a doctor from the Washington University School of Medicine concerning Bartylak's condition.

Judge Streeter noted that the letter offered to answer questions on written request, but he asked: "Why didn't he give me a full, detailed clinical report?"

Mudge said that Bartylak should not be held in contempt as the money had been released to the estate.

Order Not Complied With

The judge ordered that Bartylak be in contempt when he failed to comply with the court's order. There is no question about that.

Mudge said Bartylak's failure to appear previously in court was beyond his control. This prompted Judge Streeter to be more critical.

Noting that Bartylak is a member of the Bar Association and an officer of the court, the judge said Bartylak was ordered on Nov. 15 to turn the money over to the Becker estate by Nov. 25 and that the order was served personally by the sheriff.

"Nothing was said. No contract was made. No nothing," Judge Streeter said.

He added no one had informed the court that Bartylak was in the hospital at the time of the previous orders. "Hearsay is one thing. And talk along the street is another."

Client Relationship

The judge added that "a lawyer's responsibility to his client is high. There is no higher relationship, especially when he is chief law officer of this county."

"A lady down the street took some money. She was sent to the penitentiary. A state attorney of Bond county took some money that belonged to the state. He went to the penitentiary."

"The heart of our society is respect for the law. Esteem for the courts and the judges is the essence of this respect. Confidence in the law and the men who administer it is necessary to maintain this respect."

Quoting a British jurist, he said, "No man, not even a king, is above the law."

Judge Streeter added that he was surprised that the Madison County Bar Association "has not offered to be a friend of the court in this matter. The association is hiding its head in a sand hole like an ostrich."

New Statement by Simon Outlining Park Views

State Sen. Paul Simon of Troy again said the weekend is a statement "reaffirming my continued concern that an adequate Lewis and Clark Park area be set aside by the governor to mark the centennial of the Lewis and Clark expedition."

Simon cited three reasons for opposing the park area: "It is a nationally significant spot, a part of our heritage that should be preserved. A second reason is economic. When a study is made of what other states are developing in connection with the Lewis and Clark Trail, it is clear that if Illinois does only a fraction as much as other states we will be visited by only a fraction as many tourists as they will be visited by."

A third reason which should weigh heavily on any Illinois citizen is the small amount of park space Illinois has when compared to other states of the union. Simon said development of the park "is a particularly natural tourist attraction when combined with the Mississippi River Road. If we fail this opportunity, future generations will regret our lack of vision."

Partney Reports on Council Sanitary Committee Duties

Mayor Partney in his monthly report to Granite Cityans dwells this week on the operations of the council's Sanitary Committee.

The committee has stated in recent council sessions that the mayor and controller's office have not cooperated with the committee in a study of insect spray operations, while the mayor states that he has given the committee full data on all purchases and that they were prejudicial to the public health.

The mayor also is critical of the committee's claim that the city gave away a 50-gallon drum of the expensive chemical. He said it had been the practice of the city for 10 to 12 years to send its fogging machine to a church campgrounds near Sunset Hill and also to nearby Boy and Girl Scout camps.

The mayor explained he halted the practice because the city has no insurance on its fogging jeep, and that they were traveling over highways to get to the sites. Instead, the church campgrounds leaders last summer were given three gallons of chemicals in a 50-gallon drum that was filled with fuel oil so the churchmen could do their own spraying. Most of the persons owning cabins at the camp are Granite Cityans, he said.

Text of the mayor's report follows:

Text of Report
"One of the major objectives of your mayor has been to keep the public advised of the operation of your city government. This month's report will be of the Sanitary Committee and its functions. This committee consists of the following Aldermen: Aldermen Clyde Boyd, chairman, Claude Green and R. E. Robertson.

"The Sanitary Committee shall exercise a general supervision over the regulations and affairs in the city and adjoining territory and shall make diligent examinations into all matters affecting same. They shall cause all nuisances to be abated or removed which they may deem prejudicial or obnoxious to the public welfare or comfort, and such matters of public health not under the jurisdiction of the board of health.

"The chairman of this committee also works with the Animal Control Board, headed by Mrs. Gladys Chapman, and acts as a liaison between the board and the city council, Granite City has one of the finest animal shelters and humane officer in the area. The city of Alton, on Dec. 1, 1966, went into an animal control program and sent their control officer here to study our city's animal control methods. I quote an editorial in the Alton Telegraph:

"Mayor Clyde Wiseman stated that Mr. Weissenhut is spending two days in Granite City studying that city's animal control methods and will start official duties in Alton on Monday. Granite City has one of the best animal control programs in the area."

"Last year we stopped open dump burning at our city dump and now have one of the best sanitary landfills in the entire territory."

"We entered into a clean-up program: City inspectors removed 346 old automobiles from streets, lots and back yards. The building inspector razed 111 old buildings and the street department picked up accumulated junk and cleaned up alleys."

"Investigation of purchases and delivery of insecticides: This investigation seemed to be headed by Alderman Robertson, who seemed to be very confused. The first charge was 'elusive records.' I would like to state, there are no elusive records kept in City Hall as stated. All records are available to Alderman Robertson as they are to all Aldermen and are a matter of public record. On July 27, 1966, Alderman Robertson received copies of all invoices pertaining to the purchase of insecticides for the years 1964-1965-1966 from our controller, Robert Stevens. All city purchase orders are made by the controller."

50-Gallon Drum
"Alderman Green charged that a 50-gallon drum of insecticide was given to the city by the city officials to an unnamed and unauthorized person, knowing full well the same topic came agitated last year, it will be possible for persons who work rotating shifts to attend the classes. Those wishing to follow this procedure should identify themselves as shift workers at the time of registration and also notify their instructors on the first night the class meets."

BEWARE OF BALLYHOO VITAMINS
"Vitamin deficiency" has become a kind of catch phrase. Yet it relates to health, the province of your physician. Should you suspect that you need vitamins, consult your doctor. Let him decide what vitamins, if any, are required. How much more sensible a procedure than to succumb impulsively to non-professional ballyhoo for all-purpose, bargain vitamins. Rely on your physician's advice. When he writes a prescription, we are prepared to fill it promptly.

Patricia Coffman is Bride Of Michael S. Solenberger

Miss Patricia Ann Coffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Coffman, 2104 Bryan avenue, and Michael S. Solenberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Solenberger, 4016 Vesel drive, were married Saturday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 10 a.m. by Father Joseph Enright. The sanctuary was decorated with large bouquets of mums, gladioli and pom poms, with satin bows on the family pews. Music was the traditional wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gardenia white Cupra silk organza gown, fashioned with a rounded portrait neckline, slightly raised Empire bodice and kaubuch sleeves. A wide band of Gallon lace in a rose and leaf pattern circled the hemline of the sheath skirt and was repeated on the sleeves. A full detachable aisle-wide Watteau train fell gracefully from the shoulders.

The veil was of hand-rolled English illusion, attached to a large-petioled white rose. The bride held a bouquet of white spider mums and pom poms intermingled with holly. Miss Susie Solenberger, a sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Miss Vicki Bogosian, cousin of the bride, Pat Mitchell and Carolyn Randolph served as bridesmaids.

They were gowned alike in emerald green velvet floor-length dresses with trains of matching green satin, rounded scoop necklines and long sleeves. Headpieces were matching green veils with center bows. Their flowers were smaller versions of the bride's bouquet.

James Kirzen served as best man. Groomsman were Gary Morris, Bob Coulbert and Larry Hutchinson. Danny Solenberger, brother of the groom, and Ron Perkins were ushers.

The bride's mother appeared in a suit dress of light aqua knit jersey, trimmed at the collar with aqua crystal beading. The groom's mother wore a pale pink brocade two-piece dress with pink and crystal accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A breakfast was held at the Rose Bowl following the wedding service. It was given by the groom's parents.

A reception was held at the Knights of Columbus hall Saturday evening. The guest book was attended by Mrs. Raymond Rogers.

The newlyweds will take a short trip to an undisclosed destination.

The bride is a graduate of Granite City high school and the Laboratory Technical School in Clayton, Mo.

So I said to my husband, "O.K., if you've gotta be right about everything, be right about the time, too. You're getting Accutron for Christmas."

Accutron is the precisely right gift for the man who can't stand to be wrong about anything. Including the time of day. With Accutron it's never about 5:15. It's precisely 5:14 and 17 seconds. That's because the Accutron movement uses a tuning fork instead of a balance wheel. And this tuning fork splits every second into 360 parts. Our tuning fork is so precise that we guarantee Accutron within 60 seconds a month* (about 2 seconds a day). So this Christmas, give the man something he can always be right about. The time of day. Come in and see our complete selection of Accutron by Bulova. $125 and up.

Warriors Lead Kahoks at Half But Lose 67-58

Has the beginning of the end arrived?

The end of Collinsville high school basketball supremacy, that is. Many local fans are convinced that this is on the horizon after the Kahoks' 67-58 Southwestern Conference win at Granite City high school Friday night.

Two teams close at post in a pod collided, both utilizing a deliberate offense and pressing defense. Not just coincidentally, Warrior Coach Ralph Sackett is a former star Kahok under the long tenure of Vergil Fletcher, highly successful Collinsville coach.

Perhaps a bit awed, the Warriors appeared inept as Collinsville raced to a 9-2 lead. But Sackett relayed a few words of wisdom during a timeout, and soon it was the Kahoks who were throwing the ball away and trying low-percentage shots.

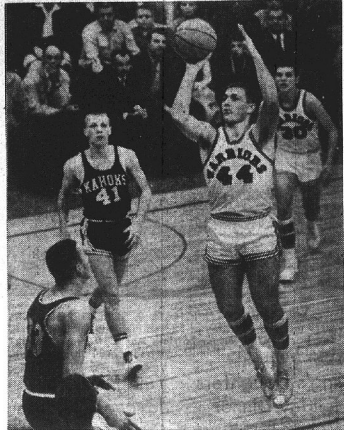

Score 12 Straight Points

For 12 consecutive points and most of the first quarter, GCHS dominated the play and took a 14-3 lead. The period ended 14-11.

Collinsville chipped away at the lead in the second quarter but still trailed at halftime, 28-28.

Result: The Warriors' go-go defense, the Kahoks tried to speed up their offense, realized that it was not their best style, Collinsville to slow it down.

With three "big" men, Collinsville began taking better advantage of its height superiority in the second half and led 48-44 before capturing the final quarter 19-14. At one point it was 54-46.

But Granite City is making steady progress as it adapts to its new tactics, and it hopes to pull even with the powerful Kahoks in another year or two.

Even the Kahok fans in the packed house of 2600 were ready to believe during the first half that the end of Kahok dominance might be at an end. At least the beginning of the end may be at hand.

Hunting Violations

Increasing This Year

Citing an increase in this season's rabbit population as the cause, Don Hastings, Madison county conservation officer, reports an increase in hunting violations for November compared to the same period in 1965.

"Five persons were apprehended for hunting rabbits before the season opened and six for hunting rabbits from an auto at night," Hastings told the Press-Record.

"Hunting rabbits at night presents a very real danger to both the violators in the auto and rural residents and farm animals."

Hastings related that one night hunter, apprehended last week, was standing on the open tailgate of a station wagon trying to shoot rabbits that appeared in the beam of the car's headlights.

"While being apprehended, he attempted to jump while the auto was moving, and fell with a loaded shotgun. Luckily it didn't fire," Hastings said. Fines for illegal hunting range from $25 to $50.

The officer is asking parents to warn boys—many apprehended have been in the 16 to 20 age group—against violating hunting laws.

Hastings added that not only a hunter, but all occupants and driver of a car used for night hunting, are equally guilty, and that parents should advise their young men accordingly.

He also asks any rural residents to contact him if hunting law violators are observed, by calling the telephone number 1-618-656-1090.

Both Fuchs and Schalkham pinned their opponents in the finals, Fuchs in 3:11 and Schalkham in 3:23.

Warrior grappler Ray Hankins (180) was defeated in the finals and took runnerup in his weight class. Mike Middleton had to forfeit third place in the heavyweight class because of an injured ankle suffered in a semifinal match with a 225-pounder from Normandy.

Bill Gibson, after defeating a first-round opponent 7-6, lost his next match but went on to capture third place in the 127-pound class on points.

OLD BUILDING, once one of the now defunct American Car & Foundry car shops, being razed by the Owens-Illinois Foundry Products Division as it was in disrepair and unused. Another building is being repaired.

SIU-SW Dedication Planned for 1967

Construction delays in completion of the communications building and the student union building on the Southern Illinois University - Southwestern Campus have bogged down plans for a final dedication of the campus by area communities.

Previously scheduled for 1966, the dedication may be accomplished in 1967, Harold R. Fischer, Chairman of Tri-City Chamber of Commerce SIU liaison committee, told the Press-Record today. Fischer also is a member of the SIU board of trustees.

"Everything, including a brochure to be published by area newspapers, is ready to go, but the buildings have to be completed before the dedication can take place," he said.

An initial dedication of the campus was held by Southern Illinois University officials earlier this year.

Auto Battery Stolen

Donald Thompson, 2804 Edwards street, reported Thursday that a battery was stolen from his 1952 auto while it was parked in front of his home during the night.

Old Car Shop Building Section Being Razed

The Owens-Illinois Foundry Products Division is razing a section of one of the old American Car & Foundry buildings and is resurfacing the exterior of another building.

The area being torn down has been in a state of disrepair and has not been used by the firm, a plant spokesman said. A wall which separated the section is being resurfaced to form a new exterior.

Repairs on the other building will return it to good condition and will lend a better appearance, the spokesman said. Contractor on the project is the I-Mo Construction Co.

The property formerly was used by the American Car & Foundry Co. which closed its plant here in 1950.

Two Passing Charges

Robert E. Pruitt, Centreville, and Irvin T. Smith, East St. Louis, were arrested at 6:45 a.m. Friday on charges of passing railroad gates at the Nixinghaus avenue crossing. They were summoned for hearings by Dec. 23.

A Sale With A Reason . . . Not Just An Excuse! WHAT IS A BARGAIN?

"You, the homemaker, are constantly besieged with advertisements of merchandise called bargains at prices reduced from much higher 'list prices.' Many of the values are authentic; some, possibly, are not.

However, no one can offer a legitimate bargain unless they have a legitimate reason for doing so. Fredman Bros. has such a reason for offering values far beyond the usual! The last six months have been among the busiest in our history. Business has been good; it has been so good that we have reached our profit quota for the year. Most of anything else we make now would be paid out in taxes. Therefore we've slashed prices throughout the store with only 3 things in mind:

1. Show our appreciation to our customers and friends in the Quad-City area by offering them an opportunity to buy all their Christmas gifts at "After Christmas" prices.
2. Reduce the overstock now instead of waiting 'til after Christmas.
3. Open up 500 new accounts before the end of the year.

Therefore all merchandise will be marked down as much as 30% to 60% just as if it were after Christmas but you can still have it delivered in time to give as a Christmas gift.

Details of Shriners Hospital For Crippled Children Given

Nearly 400 youngsters are treated through periodic visits to the outpatient facilities at Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in St. Louis. Mrs. Garnett L. Radin, Shriners' administrative officer, related Thursday when she addressed members of the Granite City Optimist Club during a weekly luncheon meeting at the YMCA.

Describing the operation and policies of the institution, located on Lindberg blvd., in St. Louis, Mrs. Radin explained that care is limited to correct congenital deformities without regard to race, color or religious affiliation on a 100% free of cost basis.

Although residency in a specific geographic area is not mandatory to receive treatment at the St. Louis hospital, the young patients are from the central states area.

Extensively equipped operating theatres and research and testing laboratories are part of the present 100-bed facility which was opened in March 1963, Mrs. Radin said. The hospital is completely self-contained, she added, even to housing its own brace shop where artificial limbs are made to exact specifications and needs of each child.

Full-time schooling also is provided for the young patients. Mrs. Radin explained, with curriculum and teachers provided in cooperation with the St. Louis county board of education.

Shriners established their first hospital at Shreveport, La., in 1922, with a hospital opening two years later on Kingshighway in St. Louis. Seventeen Shriners' hospital now function throughout the United States, in addition to two hospitals in Canada and one in Mexico, the official said.

One Imprisoned; Three Fined in Circuit Court

One local man was sentenced to prison and three others were fined in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville last week.

Marshall A. Bradley, 20, East Park Acres, was given four months on the state prison farm at Vandalia on a charge reduced to petty theft. He had been indicted for grand theft for alleged stealing items valued at $350 from an Illinois Power Co. auto about two years ago.

Robert Forte of Granite City was fined $300 after being found guilty of resisting a police officer while armed.

Guy Wallace, 26, of 2151 Washington avenue was fined $300 on a reduced charge of battery. He had been indicted for aggravated battery after a fight Sept. 7 at the Park tavern.

Referral Procedure

Children in need of assistance, whose parents show financial hardship, are referred to the hospital through the Shriners organization, or by applying at the hospital's board of governors which meets monthly to accept applications.

She suggested that families in this area with children requiring corrective surgery or treatment contact a member of the Shriners or hospital staff. A total of 73 patients from the east side area have been referred for treatment by members of Alford Temple of East St. Louis, the administrator reported.

Accompanying Mrs. Radin to the meeting was Mrs. Mabel Howell, assistant administrator, who showed slides of the hospital's physical plant and its many activities.

Program Chairman

Jack Dempsey and Richard Ervay served as program chairmen. Both are Shriners and members of the local Optimist society. Other guests introduced were Roy Wilimzig, Alford chief.

Rains Damage Sewer Lift Station Thursday

The heavy downpours of Thursday flooded the Mayville road lift station of the Nameoki area sanitary sewer system, it was reported by Street Sup. William Warfield.

Street department equipment is being used to pump the sewage until two of the lift station motors are repaired. Warfield said the flooding of the lift station caused the Mayville road to be cut off for several hours. When a nearby drainage line catchbasin backed up in the heavy downpours, and the water flooded in through the lift station lid.

"When Mayville road was improved, the lift station cover was lowered and put in the gutter. This is the third time we've had a lift station knocked out by flood waters," Warfield said. He gave no estimate of the damage other than to say it would run several hundred dollars.

Kirkpatrick Group to Hold Christmas Festival Saturday

Handmade gifts, new and used toys and a wide selection of cakes and cookies will be available at the first annual "Christmas Festival" to be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday in the Kirkpatrick Homes recreation center. The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Sandra Ray, president of the Kirkpatrick Homes Improvement Association, sponsors of the festival, said today that members have cooperated together and worked hard in an effort to make the event a success.

"Many items to be offered for sale will make excellent Christmas gifts," Mrs. Ray said, explaining the proceeds from the bazaar will be used to provide Yuletide treats or a party for youngsters living in the housing project.

The association president reported that a $50 donation from the Granite City Jaycees has helped to defray the cost of materials and supplies being used by members to manufacture homemade games, such as dart boards and household items.

Refuse Pickup Change For Briarcliff Area

Refuse pickup for residents west of the railroad tracks and on both sides of Pontoon road will be changed from Mondays to Thursdays starting Dec. 15, Merrill Burnbridge, local manager of the National Disposal Service contracting firm to remove Granite City's refuse, announced today.

Residences on Melrose and Rode avenues, West Pontoon and Old Alton roads, and all residences in Briarcliff subdivision, are included in the change.

Burnbridge said that refuse will be picked up today, as usual, and again on Thursday, Dec. 15 inaugurating the new pickup schedule.

"Those residents involved in the schedule change will have no tags, explaining the change attached to their waste cans."

Burnbridge, who consulted Mayor Donald Parney before making the change, said that residents' growth in the north end of Granite City has resulted in some late refuse pickups, and he hoped the schedule change from Monday to Thursday will better serve the residents.

GC Steel's Honored Group Recalls Wartime of 1941

The group of 125 Granite City Steel Co. employees receiving 25-year service watches Thursday evening was the largest for any one year to be honored by the firm.

They were hired during 1941, the year Granite City Steel and steel plants throughout the nation began wartime production. The banquet was held at the Gateway Hotel, St. Louis, and there were brief remarks by Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman of the board and company president, before he made the individual presentations.

It was noted there were only 26 recipients of 25-year watches last year, 24 in 1965 and only one in 1963.

This year's group compiled a total of 3125 years service. Of the 125 employees, 81 reside in the Quad-Cities. At present, over 10% of the firms 5500 employees — 562 — have 25 years or more service.

In his letter, he told of his company finding a Viet Cong cache of 600 tons of rice and considerable military equipment. He told his mother also that he was "wounded in action," the wound consisting of a sprained ankle from which he said he took "a lot of ribbing" from his fellow soldiers.

Township Officer Duties Outlined

(Concluding article on township government by the Township Officials of Illinois organization.)

Is government the servant or the master of the people? As constituted in America—and in the origin of township government—the primary purpose is to work for the good of the people. This, then, should be the occupation of the township's elected officials.

Under Illinois law, townships are authorized to administer such functions as taxation, health and welfare, public improvements, road and bridge work, some educational matters and aid to youth and the aged.

There are variations throughout the state, particularly between Cook county and the balance of Illinois.

Five-Member Boards
The town board consists of the supervisor, the town clerk and three auditors. Each has one vote on the board. Meetings are generally held once a month, although this is not required by law. The board may meet more often if township business requires this.

Annual town meetings, in which all the electorate of the township may participate, are held once a year on the first Tuesday of April. The purposes of these meetings are to inform the public what the township program will be for the coming year, and to obtain approval of the annual budget. Future township activities are discussed at these meetings, and appointments are made to committees or commissions.

A petition by 15 electors of the township can call special town meetings.

The supervisor is chairman of the town board, but not of the annual town meeting. At this session, a moderator from the electorate is chosen to be chairman, in democratic fashion.

As the top officer of the township, the supervisor handles major administrative duties. He is the town's treasurer, responsible for receiving income and paying bills, and keeping accounts.

Assistance to Poor
The supervisor also serves as administrator of general assistance and public welfare, in addition to health, public improvement, youth assistance and other programs which the township undertakes.

In most larger downstate townships, assistant supervisors are elected, but do not serve on the town board. Their purpose is to add larger township representation on the county board from more heavily populated townships.

With supervisors and assistants serving on county boards, township and county governments are interrelated from the township level upward.

There is a movement under way to change this structure. Some streamlining may take place in 1967, as it relates to the "one-man, one-vote" principle of representation.

In Cook county, a separate county board is elected, independent of township boards. The county board consists of 15 members, of whom ten are from Chicago and five from the suburbs. Again, the one-man-one-vote rule may affect this arrangement because of rapid growth of the Cook county suburbs.

Clerk of Township
The town clerk has charge of all town records, certifies the amount of taxes necessary for township purposes, handles voter registration for township elections, issues election notices and keeps minutes of all town meetings. This office was called upon recently to become more active in stimulating voter registration and voter turnout in all elections.

Town auditors perform duties which their title suggests. They audit the accounts and the performance of the township. They function as representatives of the townspeople on the town board.

(In co-extensive city-townships like Granite City, aldermen serve as the town board.)

Other township officials are elected, but do not serve on the town board. Officials include assessor, collector, highway commissioner, and in a few cases some offices are appointed by the town board, such as water commissioner and weed commissioner.

Property Assessment
The assessor is elected in all townships, counties throughout the state, but his duties are not always the same.

In Cook county, he does not assess real property. His job is to check such property not on tax rolls, and check property improvements which require assessments. He then reports to the county assessor. He is responsible for assessment of individual and corporate personal property taxes.

In all township counties, other than Cook county townships, the assessor has authority to real and personal property tax assessments.

The town collector exists in five counties in Illinois, but no longer exists in others, where a county collector takes over. Where this office does exist, the collector takes in taxes for the county, and is authorized to retain 2% of all money he collects for operation of the township. The money that the township under this system, generally no town tax levies are made, since the township usually can operate on the 2% commission it earns.

Surplus Earnings
Where the earnings become greater than the operational needs of the township, surplus funds are turned over to school districts, giving tax relief to the people in these districts and helping improve school systems in the township.

All townships in Illinois have commissioners, who supervise construction and maintenance of township (rural) roads.

In Metropolitan suburban areas, such as Niles and New Trier townships in Cook county, there are no township roads, even though a highway commissioner is elected. In such cases, this is usually an advisory position, and the township budgets no funds for his "department."

How much do township officials receive?

Although there is considerable variation from township to township, most pay scales are not in high-dollar brackets. Township supervisors, for example, earn from $5 to $12 per diem. (In Cook county they can be paid a flat salary per year not to be over $4800.)

The township assessor receives a salary based on the population of his township, varying from $20 per day in small townships to $12,000 per year in large townships of 75,000 or more population. The township tax collector receives his salary on a sliding scale based on the amount of taxes collected by him.

Clerks or Yearly Pay
Clerks receive from $5 to $12 per diem if they are working on a fee basis. The electors can, if they wish, place the town clerk on a flat yearly salary basis, which may affect this arrangement because of rapid growth of the Cook county suburbs.

Highway commissioners collect nothing in townships with no township roads. In townships which do have a road system, their salary is set by the town board of auditors. If they are paid on a per diem basis, they cannot receive more than $20 per diem.

If the commissioner is paid on a flat yearly salary, it cannot be less than $3000 nor more than $8000 a year. Auditors receive from $5 to $15 per meeting, and the town clerk receives $150 per year for their services.

Travel
If the commissioner is paid on a flat yearly salary, it cannot be less than $3000 nor more than $8000 a year. Auditors receive from $5 to $15 per meeting, and the town clerk receives $150 per year for their services.

Excellent Question for Water Firm—What About Fluoridation?

Granite City aldermen have come up with an excellent question to submit to the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Company:

"If bad-tasting phenol in the water supply can be limited to the Quad-City area rather than reaching E. St. Louis or Belleville to the south, why can't local water be fluoridated without affecting Bellevue water?"

For years, the water company has expressed willingness to fluoridate—preventing most future tooth decay in a safe and dependable way that is enjoyed now by most Americans. But it has called for 100% municipal action, maintaining that water circulates freely in all parts of its system.

Even as long ago as April 1961, when 7085 Granite Cityans voted "Yes" to start fluoridation, Belleville and nearby Swansea were the lone holdouts against fluoridation in a water network serving 20 communities. They are still blocking unanimity.

More votes were cast for fluoridation here five years ago than for U. S. Sen. Douglas in Granite City this fall or for any Granite City mayor candidate in history. And the winning margin was decisive. Madison and Venice also have authorized fluoridation. Yet, inaction continues, and families have to move to St. Louis or elsewhere in order for their youngsters to obtain fluoridation benefits.

The water company has an obligation to offer reasonable terms in its current franchise talks with Granite City, and also has an obligation to devise some solution for the fluoridation impasse. The people want fluoridation. The people need it. It deserves to be an important part of Granite City's and other cities' discussions with the water company.

Broader Educational Opportunity For Students in Madison, Venice

Venice school officials are right in proposing joint action with the Madison school district in developing counseling, library, health and audio-visual aid centers. Their combined enrollments probably could qualify for funding through Title III of the U. S. Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

As new educational needs arise, further joint ventures may become feasible, enabling both Madison and Venice schools to provide broader educational opportunity for each student than would otherwise be possible.

Governmental Reorganization Goals of Farm Organization Include County Board Redistricting, Reversal of Over-Centralization Trend

(Second of a series)
(Press-Record editorial analysis)
Illinois Farm Bureau convention delegates will ask the 1967 Illinois General Assembly to end antiquated population ratios for county board members. County board members should be elected for four-year terms with a provision for election of one-half the members every two years.

"We direct the Illinois Agricultural Association to endeavor to have the foregoing legislation embodied in any legislation providing for the apportionment of county boards or of other local governmental units."

Other major policies adopted by the IAA were: Relationships of federal, state and local governments—Opposes trend toward centralizing broad authority in the executive branch of federal government.

State, Local Resources
Asks that state and local governments be organized with sufficient resources, know-how and authority to deal effectively with local and state problems.

Guidelines for Government and American Agriculture—Pledges support for policies designed to create and maintain conditions giving farmers opportunity to earn an equitable income within a competitive economic system, believing that best opportunity for a high per-family real income lies in placing reliance on a competitive market price system rather than on government subsidies and regulations.

Seeks further expansion of domestic and foreign markets for farm products, with emphasis on developing sound dollar markets in foreign trade. Calls for gradual withdrawal from federal programs for individual commodities because they are too inflexible

For Your Holiday List—United Fund, Tree of Lights

Again in 1966, the Granite City Jaycees and Madison Rotary club are spotlighting residential holiday decorations and displays. With the whole community soon to be aglow, two elements that could assure a bright Christmas for everyone remain to be put in place.

United Fund receipts still are short of the $367,000 required for 1967, and Salvation Tree of Lights contributions have not yet provided enough food, toys and clothing for the families who are in need.

If the UF and Tree of Lights find their way onto enough Christmas lists to meet the goals, it will be a truly warm and merry holiday season. Whether they do will be an indication of how deeply the spirit of Christmas makes itself felt in the Quad-Cities.

The over - capacity crowds attracted year after year tell their own story of how much Quad-Cityans appreciate the Christmas art shows held at Granite City high school under the leadership of Eugene Alassi, school district art supervisor. Attendance last week was 1300, and over 15,000 have attended during the 21-year history.

It was with real regret that the public learned that the series may be at an end. Because of the artistic and creative value and the obvious interest shown by the public, we hope that some way can be found to continue the annual presentations.

Centerpiece, door decoration and gift wrapping ideas displayed and demonstrated at the yearly December shows have awed viewers with their variety and beauty, and have stimulated imaginative improvisation by local families in their own decorating. Partly due to the influence of the school art staff, Quad-City home exteriors and interiors are among the most colorful found anywhere in the world during the holiday season.

Undoubtedly many aspects of the Christmas project have had educational value for the students who have worked on them. Because it is curtailed to a degree, in order to make their overall art training more diversified and balanced, there would still be many elements which are of great appeal to local residents.

We'll include preservation of the art show among our fondest Christmas wishes.

The only practical way for parents to lead children down a particular path of conduct is to get that way themselves.

25-Year Bond Sales Record Has Helped Strengthen Our Nation

The quarter century of service by Henry D. Karandjoff as volunteer U. S. savings bonds chairman has seen Madison county bond sales exceed $50 million, a considerable savings investment.

The certificate and trophy presented to him recognize the role played by Karandjoff in bond purchases in meeting Uncle Sam's financial needs from the Pearl Harbor attack through all of world war II and the succeeding periods of war and "cold war."

Bond sales have strengthened our government and fostered patriotism. The dedication and program has been aided greatly by the devoted efforts of such volunteer leaders as Mr. Karandjoff.

Granite City is in the coal business proper. Two carloads were received, one of which was disposed of to customers. The other carload is going fast, and two more cars have been ordered.

The city is selling the coal at 12½ cents per bushel at the car and 15 cents per bushel delivered to the consumer.

The performance will be given for the Business Men's League and the Junior Citizens' Club, both St. Louis organizations.

A junior basketball league tournament will open at Soldan high school, St. Louis, the C.A.C. of this city has entered and will play the third game, against the Trinity team of St. Louis.

The first grand ball given by the Commonwealth Fellowship Club orchestra will be held at the city hall. Admission will be 25 cents per person.

A benefit entertainment will be given by members of the Federal Labor Union No. 15306.

The third annual Charity Ball, given by the Priscilla Club, will be held at the Moose hall. Admission is $1 a couple.

The Knights and Ladies of Security will give their annual Christmas entertainment in the Fleishman-McKary hall.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Niedringhaus M.E. Church held its annual bazaar and dinner in the church parlors. A special program was rendered.

DECEMBER 12, 1941
The high school basketball team will open its southwestern Illinois Conference season against Belleville on the home floor.

The Fleishman basketball team played a traveling league game and will play its first game against the Kuttis club of St. Louis, former A.U. champions, at the community high school gymnasium.

In the traveling league, the team will play such cities as Decatur, Danville and Springfield. White uniforms will be worn at all home games and blue uniforms at out-of-town games.

Misses Edna, Irma and Louise Genard entertained the Republican Women's club at a Christmas party in the Genard home on Grand avenue.

Twenty members of the club attended and were greeted at the door by Santa Claus. The early part of the evening was taken up with business, with Mrs. Dorothy Gaumer, president, in charge.

A contribution to the American Red cross was voted by the group. Mrs. Delmar Fearing was appointed chairman of the program committee.

MOST CAPTURED REDS DECLINED TO GO HOME

The following letters have been answered by the Department of State:

For a book I am writing, I would like to know: (1) Which were the nations which sent troops to Korea to repel the aggression? (2) How many Red Chinese prisoners were captured by the U.N. forces? How many refused to return to the mainland?

Dear Mr. M.: S. C. P.

The following countries contributed in one form or another to the armed forces of the United Nations Command: Australia, Belgium, Canada, Colombia, Ethiopia, France, Greece, the Republic of Korea, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, New Zealand, the Philippines, Thailand, Turkey, Union of South Africa, the United Kingdom and the United States.

Of the 21,370 Chinese Communist "volunteers" captured by the U.N. Command, 1030 still have been returned to Communist China in "Operation Switch" April 20-May 3, 1953.

An additional 560 agreed to return to China following signature of the Korean Armistice Agreement July 27, 1953.

The remaining 14,700 prisoners who refused voluntary repatriation were placed in the custody of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission.

Of this number, 434 subsequently requested return to China, and the others became citizens of various Far Eastern countries.

I read recently that a Russian delegate to the U.N. was forced to cancel a speaking engagement because it was outside the travel limits imposed on him.

I urge you to immediately cancel such restrictions. Everything is to be gained and nothing lost by letting everyone see the advantages of living under our type of society.

Restrictions such as this can lead only to unfavorable publicity from our standpoint. There is clearly no reason for them other than reciprocity for restrictions imposed on our own representatives in Moscow.

H. M.

Since 1955 the United States government has placed certain regulations on travel by Soviet officials resident in this country.

They are required to notify 48 hours in advance of plans to travel beyond 25 miles from the city in which they are resident.

Further, some 28% of this country is closed to them.

These regulations were reluctantly imposed in reciprocity for the Soviet refusal to permit travel by Americans which have been in effect since 1941.

Had the Soviet official informed us of his intent to travel in advance, there would have been no objection to his keeping this speaking engagement, despite the fact that similar opportunities are not granted to American diplomats in the U.S.S.R.

The government has frequently expressed its firm preference for the mutual abolition or reduction of all travel restrictions and has made several concrete proposals to the Soviet government to achieve this goal.

To date the Soviets have not replied to any of these proposals.

FULL-FARE TRAVEL BEST POLICY FOR HOLIDAYS

To the Editor:
I am sure that the Forum writer who signed himself "Soldier's Father" concerning the purchase of full-fare tickets to military personnel does not understand the situation.

It is true that military personnel do receive half-fare rates from the airlines and other commercial transportation agencies, but this is only on what is called "stand-by" basis.

If a soldier wishes to travel by commercial transportation, he must go to the airport and wait until there is a seat available

City Applies for $20,000 Clean Air Fund Grant

Members of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board were advised at a meeting Thursday evening that the city's application for $20,000 federal tax funds to institute a clean air program has been filed by the acting technical secretary, Prof. Erwin Hoelscher of Washington University.

The funds are to be used to hire a full-time technical secretary. To be reviewed by the board are engineering proposals submitted by Atty. Randall Robertson for Granite City Steel Company's blast furnace division coke ovens.

Prof. Hoelscher submitted reports that he is conferring with officials of Union Starch & Refining, on specific abatement problems and is conducting an emission inventory of Granite City industries with an agent of the state board.

Theodore Macios, chairman of the board, said the committee is in the process of receiving three applications for the post of full-time technical secretary needed for enforcement of the city's clean air law, and that it was possible recommendations would be made at the January meeting.

He also suggested the council be asked for the part-time services of a secretary-stenographer for the board's office at the city hall.

Hearty Bielecki, chairman, named Mrs. Melvin Freedman as chairman of the board's education committee, and Burton Bernard as chairman of a nominating committee for a board election of new officers for 1967.

Prof. Hoelscher was requested to write letters to the Chamber of Commerce and manufacturers association advising that city and state control laws on open burning will be enforced in the near future and compliance will be required.

Legal Opinion Is Sought on Town Filing Question

A legal opinion to settle the question as to whether candidates for township office may be nominated by party caucus or by petition, or by either method, has been requested of Illinois Attorney General William Clark by Acting State's Attorney Leon Scroggins. The request was made to settle a controversy in Wood River township in which Town Clerk Nina Henkhaus declined to provide nominating petitions to Assistant Supervisor Rodger Elble who asked for petition forms to qualify him as an independent candidate for supervisor at the township election in April. The clerk said she based her action on an informal opinion obtained by telephone from Don Ed, supervisor of the index division in the office of Secretary of State Paul Powell at Springfield. Ed cited a statute stating that townships of 5000 or more population shall nominate candidates for township offices at caucuses of the two major political parties. Elble, however, cited another statute which he said permits independent candidates to file for office by petition.

Few Caucuses Held
In past years, only three Madison county townships have held caucuses—Edwardsville, Lee and New Douglas—and Edwardsville supervisor Martin Schuarte said recently that Edwardsville has been planning to join the system of nominating by independent petitions. Supervisors in several townships have indicated they are anxiously awaiting the decision. If the attorney general should hold that caucuses are required, it would result in an almost county-wide reversal of procedure. Precedential election dates released by the secretary of state's office, however, set Jan. 9 as the first date for filing of candidates for township office, but does not set a date for con-

University Budget Pleas 42% Higher

Requests for operating funds during the 1967-68 biennium by Illinois public colleges and universities have been increased 42.8 percent, according to new budgets submitted to the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

Included in the requests is one from Southern Illinois University for $110 million, covering anticipated costs of the southwestern campus and the Carbondale campus, as well as the East St. Louis and Alton centers.

The total requests would top the $1 billion mark for the two-year period, but it is not likely that they will be allowed in their full amounts.

The requests were filed in Chicago Tuesday by the chief officers of the several Illinois public higher education groups and were accepted in routine fashion by the Illinois Board of Higher Education, which will spend the next 30 days studying the requests before making recommendations to the Illinois Legislature.

Drivers Under 18 Can Lose License for Curfew Violation

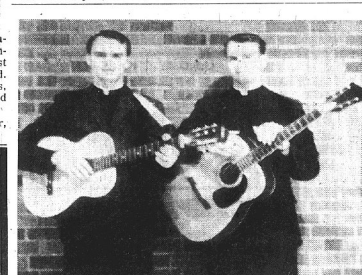

Secretary of State Paul Powell today reminded licensed drivers under 18 years of age that violation of the curfew law can cost them their driver licenses.

A 1965 amendment to the driver's license law makes the driver's license of a person under 18 invalid during the hours that person is subject to the curfew law, and authorizes the secretary of state to revoke and suspend driver's licenses containing this paragraph: "Has operated a motor vehicle upon a highway of this state night Friday and Saturday until 6 a.m. the following day, and Sunday through the provisions of Section 6-110 of this Act. Provided that for the first such offense the secretary of state may suspend such license for not more than 30 days, and for the second such offense not more than 90 days, and for the third such offense not more than 1 year."

Violation of the Curfew Law is not, by itself, cause to suspend the driver license, but that the driver's license of a motor vehicle while in violation of the curfew law is cause.

Secretary Powell said he wants to bring these provisions of the law to the attention of under-18-year-olds and their parents, especially with the holiday season approaching, because frequently when licenses are suspended for this reason, both the young people and their parents complain that they were not aware such action would be taken.

On this subject, the law reads, law is cause.

TWIN GUITARISTS, Don and Bob Kretschmar of Concordia Seminary, who will present a Christmas program at Concordia Lutheran Church, 23rd street and Grand avenue, Wednesday evening.

Twin Guitarists Will Give Program Here

The third of three pre-Christmas Wednesday evening services will bring back to Concordia Lutheran Church the guitars of New Orleans Kretschmar twins, Don and Bob Kretschmar are students at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis. Last summer, found them at Virginia Beach, making a confession of their faith to the beachheads of the Atlantic, whose attention was caught by the Kretschmars' guitars.

Advent and Christmas folk songs and guitar settings for the Psalms will be a part of their leading Concordia at worship Wednesday evening at 7:30. Seminary Don Kretschmar will preach on the theme, "Preparing the Way for Christmas."

After worship the twins, in the church's parish hall, will lead the congregation through the singing of familiar Christmas carols and songs. Refreshments will follow. "Concordia enjoyed and profited from the Kretschmars and their guitars," said Concordia's pastor, the Rev. Arvin Twietmeyer, "when twice before Concordia worshipped with the accompaniment of guitars rather than with the organ." During both these "Contemporary Vespers" Concordia saw the attempt meaningfully to blend the Gospel with matters of everyday life through sounds and words now familiar on the contemporary scene.

Their recording of folk songs for the Lutheran Laymen's League has been chosen as representative of an American New Year's greeting to be aired in a Monitor style program over the powerful East German Radio Deutschlandsender on New Year's Day.

MRS. GERALD SINER of 75 Kaseberg lane, points to a wringer-type washing machine and 700 pound upright freezer that were blown over by gusty winds Thursday. The wind ripped open the doors of a 9x12 foot metal-utility shed the freezer and washing machine were in, and capsized it.

Utility Shed, House Trailer Nearly Become Airborne

Gusty winds leftover from tornado movements in the area Thursday upended a metal utility shed containing a washing machine and a 700 pound freezer doors of the utility shed and at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Siner at 75 Kaseberg lane, Pontoon Village.

Mrs. Siner told the Press-Record that she felt her house-trailer begin to vibrate about 10 a.m., but thought nothing of it. "The trailer really began to vibrate, and I heard a noise from outside that sounded like symbols clashing. I looked out and the wind shed containing a washing machine and a 700 pound freezer doors of the utility shed and at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Siner at 75 Kaseberg lane, Pontoon Village.

The strange thing is that I checked with my neighbor, whose trailer is about 20 feet from mine, and she said her trailer hadn't shook at all."

The electric upright freezer, which was in service when it was blown over by the wind, temporarily short circuited the electrical circuits in Mrs. Siner's and her neighbor's trailer, but disconnecting the freezer, Mrs. Siner said, returned the power.

"I didn't care about the shed too much, because for a while I thought the trailer was going to become airborne and fly away," she commented.

Both the utility shed and contents are insured, but no damage estimate was available.

Crop Diversion Registration Starts

Registration for the 1967 crop-land adjustment program is under way at Madison county farmers at the ASICS office in Edwardsville, according to Lee Rogers, office manager.

Payment rates and other details relating to individual farm will be explained to those inquiring at the county office. Payments will be based on the farm yield of the crop being diverted.

Corn will earn the highest rate in the county.

Rogers said the voluntary program will help farmers divert cropland to conserving uses under long-term agreements. Contracts are offered for five to 10 year periods. The entire 1967 feed grain base is eligible for diversion.

Cost-share payments may be obtained to help establish conserving practices on the land taken out of production with reasonable limits.

Rogers said the county office will mail general information about the 1967 cropland adjustment program and he urged those interested to call the county office at their earliest convenience.

Since funds are limited, registration to participate will be accepted on a first-come basis, he said.

Union Starch Obtains Permits for Foundations

G. H. Stenberg is the contractor. It was one of six permits issued during the first week of December, listing values of $30,250.

A permit for general repairs to a news service building at 1414 Nineteenth street was issued to Elmer Miller. The work will cost $700.

Others obtaining permits were the Tri-City American Legion Post 113 to rebuild a brick wall at a cost of $2000, Henry Kier, 2727 Sunset drive, for a carport at $1200; Gertrude Eads, 2031 Delmar avenue, for general repairs; $255; and to Alex Kirus, 1728 Maple street, to repair a garage, $500.

Schermer Brothers was issued a permit to raze a four-room dwelling at 2950 St. Paul street at a cost of $50. The Granite City fire department is to burn down the building.

Lighting Contest Winners To Receive Post Lamps

Eight electric post-lamps with a total value of $250, are this year's Jaycee Christmas lighting contest awards.

One of the lamps is on display at the Illinois Power Co. office, Niedringhaus and Delmar avenues. The firm is co-sponsoring the contest.

The flat-black colored lamp features an electric-eye that automatically turns the light off and on at dusk and dawn.

In the five-foot tall lamp column is an electrical outlet that could serve to connect a hedge clipper or a barbecue rotisserie.

Gary Sans Souci, Jaycee project chairman, said today that entry blanks are available at the three city banks, grocery stores and a hardware store. The entry blanks are attached to contest posters and may be dropped in boxes near the posters, or mailed to "Granite City Jaycees," P.O. Box 3, Granite City, Ill. Entry blanks are also available at the Illinois Power Co. office.

Award of prizes will not be determined by geographical sectioning of the city but the lamps will be awarded wherever the most outstanding lighting displays are, according to Sans Souci. Judging will begin with the pre-Christmas week on Dec. 19.

Deadline for entering the 1966 Christmas home lighting contest is midnight Sunday, Dec. 18, for mailed entries, and Monday, Dec. 19, for entry blanks dropped in boxes where posters are displayed.
